SLIM ATTENDANCE AT BENNING

New Betting System Frightens Regulars Away-Miller Takes the Handicap and Other Contests as Well, Having Close Shave on Woolwich. Garth's Souvigny Wins 'Chase,

Benning's opening day of the fall racing season was one of triumph for favorites, the English betting system, and Jockey Walter Miller. Four of the winners were the first selections of the public, betting was conducted under a restricted, though most inconvenient form, and the champion jockey of the year rode three horses to victory, and finished third

Uncertainty as to the probable outcome of betting on the races, since the courts knocked out the former system, kept many "regulars" away. The man who figures to win the price of admission was wary about giving up $2 without knowing whether he would be permitted to make

Several bookmakers laid prices, but Lad. there was a smaller number than usual, and the discomforts of conducting the game were so many that few will care to carry their slates through the whole Waterway. meeting. Instead of the bookmakers being arranged around the big pavilion in rows, and their slates numbered, they circulated in all parts of the establish-

No attempt was made to interfere with the betting, as it was believed that there was no violation of the law. It is claimed the system will work itself out fairly satisfactorily, and beyond the inconvenience of locating the books on which wagers were made, the public will acclimate itself to the new conditions.

ford was an easy winner of the Columbia Handicap, at seven furlongs, a race that was considered to be a very open event. After shutting Welbourne out in the scramble for position, Oxford ran almost as he pleased. Dolly Spanker, Cossiver and Soliton Por were seventled. Merald shaving Parlor! Here we stop

Oxford Much the Best.

Walter Miller rushed Oxford out in front, although he shut off Welbourne sharply. After a furlong was run it was C. A. Fendall's line-up will and Miller had nothing to do but pick be Oneil, right forward; Keane, left for out the best of the going. He chose the ward; McHale, center; Discon, right back; middle of the track coming down the Johnson, left back. stretch, while Welbourne and Pater were being hard driven for the place. Graziallo, who usually races well in the Benning mud, seemed to be far under his form, although he hung on to Welbourne for a time and dropped back in the heavy going in the stretch

Miller celebrated his return to Benning by not only winning this race, but also the first and last ones, thus bringing his year's winning mounts up to 223, a record Is $1.00 a full quart. Why pay more for inferior brands? Schlitz Atlas Beer on draught. Free de-

The steeplechase for maiden three-yearolds was a disappointment, inasmuch as it was practically a one-horse affair. There were on'y four entrants, and all started, but Billy Garth's Souvigny cellent foot, but jumped beautifully. Judge Parker fell at the next fence after the Liverpool, and The Colonel and Acolyte gave a poor exhibition of the oss-country game, neither fencing well.

Last Race Was a Good One. There was but one close contest on the eard, and that was furnished in the running of the last event, a mile run over the Columbia course, Woolwich, Ivanhoe and Weirdsome figured so nearly equal that the first two closed 5 to 2 favorites, and Weirdsome held at 3 to 1. Ivanhoe was a strong tip. Ivanhoe and Grand Duchess made the early running, but when the party was at the head of the Frank McCate's Niblick was much the I best in the opening race, at six and a half furlongs. Several platers that have raced at former Benning meetings ac-cepted the issue, and Niblick was made 192 the favorite. Niblick, Yada, and Toscan raced two lengths apart for half the distance, when Niblick showed superior class and Miller let him gallo; home up the field in the third race, which was a scramble at five furlongs. Regal Lad won through Notter's success in getting away in front and averting the crowding on the bend, where June Time and Millstone were bumped out of it. straightened out, however, both these youngsters made up a lot of ground.
